Clause 7.01

A regular employee is a person who has successfully completed the probationary period.

Clause 7.02

A probationary employee is an employee who is hired with a view to filling a regular position and who, before being advanced to the status of a regular employee, must undergo a probationary period of up to six (6) months during which time the employee's qualifications may be determined. Seniority shall not accumulate until the employee acquires regular status, and shall then accumulate from the date of hiring.

The six (6) month probationary period may be extended upon mutual agreement between the parties.

Clause 7.03

A temporary employee is an employee hired for a period not exceeding seven (7) months (in the case of a temporary employee hired to fill a vacancy created by a pregnancy/adoption leave, the period of employment may be up to eighteen (18) months) for either a specific job of limited duration, or to fill a temporary vacancy in a continuing classification. This period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Seniority shall not accumulate unless and until the temporary employee acquires regular status and then shall accumulate from the date of hiring. No temporary employee shall be hired to occupy a position which would deny a regular employee the right of advancement or promotion subject to the regular employee having the required qualifications.

Where training is required the Union agrees to allow the Employer to extend the period of temporary employment by ten (10) working days at the front end and ten (10) working days at the back end.

Clause 7.04

A casual employee is a person hired on a continuing on-going basis to supply temporary relief for classifications in Group 5 or lower or when the necessity arises in Group 6 in accordance with Schedule "A" O.C.T. A casual employee shall acquire progression credits for the purpose of progressions through the incremental scale of Schedule "A" O.C.T. based on the accumulation of the days worked (6 months = 130 days worked).

Casual employees shall not be utilized to permanently replace a regular or probationary employee.

A casual employee who is called out to work shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours at straight time or the actual time worked, whichever is the greater.

Should a casual employee acquire probationary status, the employee must undergo the normal probationary period, but upon acquiring regular status, the employee will have their seniority reverted back, equal to the number of accumulated work days since the last date of hire.

A casual employee having worked 130 days will be compensated an additional 10% of the employee's hourly rate in-lieu of benefits for all hours paid.

Clause 7.05

Prior to becoming a regular employee, each employee shall be examined by a doctor designated and paid for by the Employer to ascertain the physical fitness of the employee. Such examination shall be carried out during normal hours if possible and without loss of normal wages and benefits.

Clause 7.06

All Co-op students will be paid at the summer student rate. It is understood that co-op students can be hired throughout the year.

ARTICLE 8 - SENIORITY

Clause 8.01

Seniority is the relative ranking of regular employees according to their length of employment with the Employer in the bargaining unit, and shall date in all cases from the time the employee last entered the employment of the Employer.

Should two (2) or more employees have an identical date of seniority, their seniority dates will remain unchanged, however, their relative ranking on the seniority list shall be determined through a random draw, with those employees involved along with a representative of the Union present.

Clause 8.02

Seniority lists shall be posted in January and July of each year, with one (1) copy being forwarded to the Union. Protests with regard to seniority shall be submitted as a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure contained herein. This list will show all employees within the Bargaining Unit in order of seniority stating the employee's number, name, job classification, and date of latest entry in the employ of the Employer.

Clause 8.03

Seniority is the principle of granting preference with regard to lay-off, demotion due to lay-off, and recall after lay-off.

It is understood and agreed that in the event of a reduction (lay-off) of Employer employees, employees with the most seniority will be entitled to displace employees with less seniority in other positions, in lieu of being laid off, provided they are qualified to do the work.

It is understood and agreed that in the event of a reduction (lay-off) of Employer employees, that any regular employee affected directly or through bumping by a lay-off shall be able to bump a regular, probationary, temporary or casual employee with less seniority, provided they are qualified to do the work.

The right to bump includes the right to bump upwards.

Employees shall be recalled on a seniority basis provided they are qualified to do the work available.

Clause 8.04

Employees shall lose their seniority and cease to be an employee by reason of:

1. Dismissal for just cause.
2. Voluntary resignation.
3. Failing to report for work within a period of fourteen (14) working days after receipt of a notice to return to work after a lay-off by Registered Mail to the last place of residence known to the Employer.
4.
 - a. After a lay-off extending for a period of twelve (12) months for employees with less than six (6) years of service.
 - b. After a lay-off extending for a period of eighteen (18) months for employees with greater than six (6) years of service.
5. Retirement.
6. Placed on a disability pension and is unable to perform any available work for the Employer.

7. Employees not reporting for work without having made arrangements with management will be considered to have voluntarily resigned after ten (10) working days. Reinstatement in such cases will depend on the employee having made a reasonable effort to notify their Department Supervisor during the absence, and giving a valid reason for the absence.

Clause 8.05

In the event that an employee within the Bargaining Unit should be promoted to a position beyond the scope of the Bargaining Unit, the employee shall retain seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. The employee shall be given a trial period of up to six (6) months. Should the employee prove unsatisfactory or if the employee finds themselves unable to perform the duties of the new position during such trial period, the employee shall have the opportunity to revert back to the position and grade/step held immediately preceding such promotion.

Clause 8.06

The Employer shall notify all employees, covered by the scope of this Agreement, who are to be laid off in accordance with the provisions of The Employment Standards Act. If the employee laid off has not had the opportunity to work the period of notice of layoff specified in The Employment Standards Act, the employee shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of the notice during which work was not made available to the employee.

Clause 8.07

It is understood and agreed that in the event of a reduction of more than one (1) regular employee, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to provide the Union at least three (3) months notice. The parties agree to meet within ten (10) working days of such notice for the purpose of minimizing any adverse effects upon the employees involved. Such discussion shall include the implementation of an Early Retirement Incentive program and/or other recognized voluntary leaving incentive programs as an alternative to layoffs.

ARTICLE 9 - JOB POSTING AND SELECTION

Clause 9.01

Seniority is the relative ranking of regular employees according to their length of employment with the Employer in the Bargaining Unit and where qualifications of the applicants are relatively equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor with regard to promotion and transfer.

Clause 9.02

- (a) All vacant regular positions, limited positions and newly created positions within the coverage of this Agreement, shall be posted for a minimum period of five (5) working days during which time regular employees will have an opportunity to apply for such positions before probationary, casual, temporary or non-employees are considered. Consideration shall be given to qualified employees from other GSU subsidiaries. Such posting shall clearly state the type of position and the minimum qualifications required to perform the duties as well as the wage rate and range if applicable. Two (2) copies of each notice of posting will be mailed to the Sectional Chair of the Union and the Recording Secretary of the Union as recorded in the records of the Employer.

- (b) The posting period shall begin within three (3) working days of the date a vacancy occurs. A selection period of up to ten (10) working days, if required, shall be allowed following the removal of the posting after which the name of the successful applicant, if any, shall be posted for a period of three (3) working days. Once the successful applicant is named the appropriate rate of pay shall commence within five (5) working days.
- (c) Notwithstanding part (b) vacancies caused by leave in accordance with the collective agreement including but not limited to parental leave, approved leave of absence, and extended medical leaves where the Employer posts in advance of the date the vacancy occurs, shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days.

The Employer will include the anticipated date of the vacancy on the job posting. A selection period of up to ten (10) working days, if required, shall be allowed following the removal of the posting after which the name of the successful applicant, if any, shall be posted for a period of three (3) working days. The Employer agrees to pay the appropriate rate of pay as of the date identified on the job posting. Should the anticipated vacancy occur prior to that date identified on the job posting the successful applicant will commence being paid the appropriate rate of pay within five (5) working days of the vacancy.

- (d) In the event that the Employer determines that they will not fill a vacant position, in accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement, the Employer shall provide to the Union written notice of such determination which shall include:
 - 1. Reasons for such decision; and
 - 2. Details as to how the Employer intends to have the duties of the position performed.

The written notice shall be provided to the Union by the Employer as far in advance as practical, however, the written notice shall not be any less than fifteen (15) working days prior to the intended implementation of the decision.

In the event a satisfactory alternative to the Employer's decision in terms of efficiency, cost, quality of work and other factors is possible, the Employer agrees to explore possible alternatives to their decision. The Employer shall meet with the Union prior to the implementation of their decision in order to determine whether or not their decision should proceed as planned, be cancelled, or amended.

Clause 9.03

An employee who is absent from work due to vacation or approved leave of absence during the time the position is posted, shall have the right to apply for such position within ten (10) working days from the removal of the job posting, or within three (3) working days from the employee's return to work from such vacation or leave, whichever is sooner.

Clause 9.04

A limited position shall mean a position which is for a limited duration not to exceed seven (7) months or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the Union. An employee filling such limited positions shall upon termination revert to the classification, depot and wage/grade held immediately preceding the assignment to the limited position.

Notwithstanding the above, if the employee being replaced is still absent due to illness or accident after the twelve (12) month period, or pregnancy/adoption/parental leave after the eighteen (18) month period, the posting period shall continue until the employee returns to work or leaves the employ of the Employer. However, such posting shall not exceed thirty (30) months.

Clause 9.05

A limited position shall not include any temporary vacancy of a duration of forty-five (45) calendar days or less created by reason of sickness, accident, vacations or approved leave of absence.

Clause 9.06

An employee who is the successful applicant for a limited position shall receive the normal rate for the position as if the position was permanent for all days actually worked in the limited position.

Subject to clause 17.01 (h), an employee who is the successful applicant for a limited position shall receive vacation with pay as if the position was permanent for all vacation days actually taken while working in the limited position. For clarity purposes, it is understood and agreed that a person moving from a thirty-five (35) hour per week position to a forty (40) hour per week position will be credited an additional hour vacation in their accrual balance, for any vacation day taken at eight (8) hours while in the relief position. Similarly, a person moving from a forty (40) hour per week position to a thirty-five (35) hour per week position will be debited one hour vacation in their accrual balance for any vacation day taken at seven (7) hours while in the relief position. The same formula, using one-half (1/2) hour increments shall apply for one-half (1/2) day vacation.

Clause 9.07

The successful applicant to a job posting shall be placed on trial for a trial period of up to six (6) months in the new position. During the trial period the employee shall be paid at the rate of pay for the position.

Clause 9.08

Successful applicants from positions within the coverage of this Agreement to another position who prove unsatisfactory in that position during the trial period, or if the employee finds themselves unable to perform the duties of the new position, shall have the opportunity to revert back to the position, depot and grade/step held immediately preceding such position posting. Employees displaced in their position by the above procedure shall revert back to the position and grade/step held immediately preceding such position posting.

Clause 9.09

Upon request by an unsuccessful applicant to a job posting the Employer will advise the employee, in writing, the reason(s) the employee was not selected for the position.

Clause 9.10

In the event that there are no qualified applicants to a job posting, the Employer may, having regard for seniority and the skills of the applicants, select an applicant who does not meet the qualifications contained in the job posting. The provisions of Articles 9.07 and 9.08 shall apply.

The Employer may require that the selected applicant acquire the qualifications and skills contained in the job posting over a specific and reasonable period of time. At the time of selection the Employer will clearly communicate with the selected employee, in writing, outlining the qualifications and expectations required of the employee in order for the employee to remain in the position.

Should the employee be unable to succeed in the new position, the Employer will not be required to repost the original job posting.

Clause 9.11

When a position not covered in Schedule "B" (outside) is established during the term of this agreement or when a position covered in Schedule "B" (outside) is altered during the term of this agreement such that the job description does not adequately reflect the job performed, the rate of pay shall be subject to negotiations between the Employer and the Union. If the parties are unable to agree on the working conditions and the rate of pay of the job in question, the Employer may institute the new position whilst such dispute is submitted to the Grievance Procedure starting at Step II and Arbitration, if necessary. The new rate shall become retroactive to the time the position was first filled by an employee or the duties were altered.

Clause 9.12

This clause applies to an employee on the O.C.T. wage Schedule "A". An employee who is a successful applicant for a posted position within the O.C.T. wage schedule:

- (a) will not suffer a reduction in wage rate due to a transfer to another classification at the same wage level.
- (b) will receive the next higher wage rate upon promotion to a higher classification.
- (c) will not suffer a reduction in incremental level due to a transfer to another classification at a lower level.

Clause 9.13

An employee on the Outside wage Schedule "B" who is a successful applicant for a posted position within the O.C.T. wage schedule, that has a higher rate of pay at Step 4, shall be placed at a Step in the Group for the O.C.T. position so that the employee suffers no loss in wages.

Clause 9.14

Where there are no successful applicants for a posted position, and if an employee is detailed to fill the position, such employee will not suffer a reduction in wages.

ARTICLE 10 - RELIEVING IN HIGHER CLASSIFICATION AND TEMPORARY TRANSFERS

Clause 10.01

The following procedures shall apply to the selection of designated relief employees to relieve for vacancies of forty-five (45) calendar days or less:

1. First opportunity shall be given to the qualified employee in accordance with seniority in a lower group rating.
2. Next opportunity shall be given to the qualified employee in accordance with seniority in an equal group rating.
3. Next opportunity shall be given to the qualified employee in accordance with seniority in the next higher group rating.

Short Term Sick Leave Benefits may not be payable under the following circumstances:

1. A disability when the employee is not under the continuing supervision and treatment by a qualified medical practitioner.
2. Alcoholism, drug addiction or any mental condition connected therewith, unless the employee is actively attempting to gain treatment, or is certified as being actively supervised by a rehabilitation center or provincially designated institution.
3. If the employee's disability is due to a nervous, mental, psychological or emotional disorder, payments will not be made unless the employee is actively attempting to gain the care of a registered specialist in psychiatry, or a duly qualified medical practitioner with expertise in the realm of the specific diagnosis.

Overpayments

Should the Employer make an error in the calculation of an employee's entitlement to short term sick leave which results in an overpayment not exceeding $200.00, such error may be corrected by notifying the employee and deducting no more than $50.00 from an employees' successive pay cheques, provided that the first such deduction is made within two months of the error being made.

Should the error be discovered later than two months after such error was made or should the error result in an overpayment exceeding $200.00, the Employer will obtain the consent of the Employee to the deduction or negotiate other appropriate repayment terms with the Union.

The provisions of paragraph #1 and # 2 do not disallow the Employer and the affected employees from agreeing to another method of repayment.

If terms of repayment cannot be successfully negotiated nothing in this Letter of Understanding limits the Employer's ability to collect an overpayment from an employee using other legal means.

SCHEDULE "D"

LONG TERM INCOME PROTECTION PLAN

Where a provision in this outline is in conflict with the Canada Life Assurance master plan, the Canada Life Assurance will apply and prevail.

The Long Term Income Protection Plan provides income security should an employee become totally disabled prior to age 65 due to a sickness or injury which totally disables over a long period of time. The Plan provides coverage on and off the job.

Monthly Benefit

The monthly benefit is equal to seventy-five percent (75%) of normal monthly earnings, excluding overtime and other special compensations. This amount, in turn, is reduced by an income payable to the employee as a result of the disability from the following sources:

- (a) Sick Pay from 1627596 Ontario Incorporated.
- (b) Any other group insurance disability benefits arranged through 1627596 Ontario Incorporated or any professional association.
- (c) Retirement benefits from OMERS, or a governmental plan.
- (d) Government disability benefits.
- (e) Workplace Safety and Insurance Board benefits.
- (f) Canada Pension Plan benefits (excluding benefits for dependents and automatic adjustment due to Cost of Living Index while receiving benefit).

If any employee is receiving other disability income, the monthly benefit under the Plan will be reduced so that disability income he/she receives from all sources does not exceed eighty-five percent (85%) of his/her regular monthly earnings at the time he/she became disabled.

Commencement of Benefits

The benefits commence six (6) months from the date that disability began, which includes the period of payment under the terms of the short term sick leave plan. Proof of disability must be submitted within six (6) months following the Qualifying Period.

Benefit Period

Following the Qualifying Period an employee would receive a monthly income until the earlier of:

- (a) attainment of age 65;
- (b) cessation of total disability;
- (c) attainment of date of retirement; and
- (d) death.

Definition of Total Disability

Total disability means that the employee is unable, because of sickness or accident, to perform the duties of their regular occupation. This definition applies for the first twenty-four (24) months of payments. After this time, the inability to perform an occupation for which the employee is reasonably fitted by training, education or experience will constitute total disability.

It is not required that an employee be confined to home, but they must be under the regular care of a physician.

Recurrent Disabilities

If an insured employee having ceased to be totally disabled returns to work for the Employer and within six (6) months again becomes totally disabled from the same or related cause, the qualifying period will not again be applicable. This would be considered as "one continuous period of disability".

If an insured employee having ceased to be totally disabled returns to work for the Employer and again becomes totally disabled from a different cause or if from the same cause more than six (6) months after cessation of the previous disability, the qualifying period will again be applicable.

Rehabilitative Employment

If during the first twenty-four (24) months of payments an employee is able to engage in some work and earn some income, the Plan will continue to pay for the employee on a reduced basis. The benefit amount will be reduced by fifty percent (50%) of the wages or earnings which he/she receives from such employment during this twenty-four (24) month period.

An employee's income from all sources during this period of rehabilitative employment must not exceed ninety percent (90%) of his/her basic wages from his/her normal occupation immediately prior to his/her total disability.

Termination of Employment

The long term disability benefit terminates when an employee terminates his/her employment with 1627596 Ontario Incorporated. However, if an employee is disabled at the time of termination he/she may still be eligible for long term disability benefits in accordance with the provisions of this plan.

Exceptions and Limitations

Benefits are not payable for the following:

- (a) A disability where you are not under continuing medical supervision and treatment.
- (b) A disability caused by intentionally self-inflicted injuries or illness while either sane or insane.
- (c) A disability resulting from insurrection, war, service in the armed forces of any country, or participation in a riot.
- (d) Pregnancy related disabilities during any period the employee is on pregnancy leave of absence due to which she is entitled under applicable provincial statutes or mutually agreed to by 1627596 Ontario Incorporated as the case may be.
- (e) Alcoholism, drug addiction, or any mental condition connected therewith, unless the insured person is under active treatment in, or certified as being actively supervised by a rehabilitation centre or provincially designated institution.
- (f) If an employee's disability is due to a nervous, mental, physiological or emotional disorder, payments will not be made unless the employee is under the care of a registered specialist in psychiatry, or a doctor approved by a registered specialist in psychiatry.
- (g) No benefits will be payable for disabilities resulting from any period of disability which commences while the employee is not insured under this policy.
- (h) No benefits will be payable for disabilities resulting from committing or attempting to commit a criminal act.
